COMPANY BIOGRAPHIES

Michael Bradley | Director

Michael graduated from the University of North Alabama with a degree in Communications and Theatre. He has worked in theatre as a Jack of all trades, from being a director, technician, and actor. He has acted in Nashville in commercials as well as doing improv wherever he is. He moved to Huntsville in March of 2012 and has been acting in the community since then.

Tanja Lewis Miller | Assistant Director

Tanja is super grateful to Mikey for, oh so eloquently, asking her to assist him with this highly unique experience and allowing her to play along with such a wonderful group of folks. In her other life, Tanja is co-owner of Evil Cheez Productions with her amazingly talented hubby, Wayne. She is excited to announce that ECP will be performing “Joey Harte Says Goodbye” at Theatre Huntsville's Studio Theatre in May, so mark your calendars. Now, to all of you, ENJOY THE DAMN SHOW!

Brittany Gollins

After taking a 10+ year hiatus from the stage, Brittany has celebrated a return to the performing arts in two separate Theatre Huntsville productions this season - “Dreamgirls” and “Too Much Light...”! Brittany previously performed in school plays, musicals, & choruses in North Carolina, drunkenly sang and played ukulele at 'burner' festivals on the east coast, and acted as manager of an alt-indie band in NYC. Since moving to Huntsville in spring of 2021, Brittany has enjoyed spending time exploring the area with her family and dog, particularly neighborhood bike rides and hiking on Monte Sano.

Marcelia Jackson

Marcelia, aka MarCe, isn't new to the stage she is just new to this play. Lol, seriously, MarCe has been doing theater for years here locally and decided to come back to Theatre Huntsville this season to do “Dreamgirl”s and kept auditioning. “What Can You Say ACTING IS MY LIFE. I love the stage. Hope you enjoy this experience. Oh one last thing...Look Tanja I did this one all by myself I'm a big kid now...”

Nina Soden

Nina is a local Realtor, an Urban Fantasy/Fiction author, and an avid supporter and member of local theatre. She graduated from Eastern Michigan University with a dual major in Theatre Arts and Communications, before moving to Los Angeles to pursue her acting career. Since moving to Huntsville, she has continued her pursuit of the arts on stage and off stage with Theatre Huntsville, Evil Cheez Productions, and the previous Renaissance Theater. She looks forward to future productions both on stage and directing.

Sam McLeroy

Sam has been performing in this very theater since around 2007. It is rumored (but unconfirmed) that Sam actually lives in this theater and conveniently uses different “shows” to justify their presence in the theater. Sam has appeared in this theater in Crash! Boom! Bang! Plays, Epic Comedy Hour, numerous musical performances including the sorely missed Purgatory Lounge. Using the guise of actor, comedian, singer/songwriter, Sam has (possibly) gotten away with residing in this theater for over 15 years. Sam would like to thank their very understanding wife, AJ, for pushing them back onstage after a long hiatus and for putting up with Sam. Thanks so much to the cast, crew, and directors for also putting up with Sam. Sam knows it isn't easy.

Nolan Stuessy

Nolan is excited to be in his first show with Theatre Huntsville in what has been a wild experience. He has previously performed in "The Complete Works of Wi Shakespeare: abridged", worked backstage on several shows, and plans to continue doing theatre in Huntsville. He is thankful to the cast and crew of the show for all the work they've put in, it's been a pleasure.

Carrie Smithson

Theatre lover and musical appreciator (don't ask her to sing, you'll quickly regret it), Carrie has been doing theatre locally for 10 years. She adores books, plants, and long walks on the beach and.. wait, not a dating bio. Right. Cause Carrie is married and has four sons. Yes, you read that right, 4. Hope you enjoy the show! smiles awkwardly

P.S. She's also a Capricorn, so don't fuck with her.

David Friedlander

Originally from Mobile, Alabama, David is a mechanical engineer by day and a standup comedian by night. David has not actually been in a play before but, in the Shakespearean sense of "all the world's a stage", he has been in a play for 28 years. Thankfully this play is shorter.

Liza Jane Richey(LJ)

Liza Jane Richey, originally from Florence, AL, received her BFA in Acting from the State University New York, Purchase. She wrote, directed & acted in a short film Forbidden Fruit, which won Best Ensemble in the Sydney Web Fest & was featured in the Rocket City Film Fest. She is excited for her first production with Theatre Huntsville!
